Is climbing a difficult and demanding activity? The answer is no! Everyone can try it, and everyone can experience the joy of climbing. For individuals demanding climbers or for a group of friends who want to have fun or even for families with kids, rock climbing in Crete can be an alternative experience far from the usuals!

And how could this happen? As long as all the safety standards have been followed, and in Alternative Crete we do that with certified guides and certified double check equipment, rock climbing can be fun and safe at the same time.

Also, with a big variety of options between easy and hard climbing routes, almost in every climbing field in the island, we can choose what fits better to your needs and your level. So, give it a try! The rocks are waiting for us.
